Grading

Grades will be maintained on ELMS. You are responsible for all the material discussed in lecture and posted on the class website, including announcements, deadlines, policies, etc.

Your final course grade will be determined according to the following percentages:

% Total	Assignment	Description
65%	Projects	Individual projects that teach practical skills in various situations.
25%	Final Project	Final project to demonstrate mastery of topics learned and apply knowledge towards creating a full website from scratch.
10%	Quizzes	Weekly take home quizzes to assess understanding of topics covered.

Any request for reconsideration of any grading on coursework must be submitted within one week of when it is returned. No requests will be considered afterwards.

Tentative Schedule:

Week	Topic	Assignment
1 (8/31)	Introduction + HTML
2 (9/7)	HTML + CSS	P1 OUT.
3 (9/14)	HTML + CSS
4 (9/21)	SCSS	P1 DUE.

Projects

Projects will assess your understanding of new concepts and techniques shared during class. Projects must be submitted electronically following the instructions given in each project assignment.

Projects may be submitted up to 24 hours late for a 10% penalty, but after 24 hours, they will no longer be accepted.

Quizzes

Quizzes will be weekly and will assess students on topics covered in class. They will take no longer than 15 minutes to complete and will be done out of class.

Quizzes may be submitted up to 24 hours late for a 10% penalty, but after 24 hours, they will no longer be accepted.

Course Staff Communications

We will interact with students outside of class in primarily two ways: in-person during office hours and email.

Academic Integrity

Note that academic dishonesty includes not only cheating, fabrication, and plagiarism, but also includes helping other students commit acts of academic dishonesty by allowing them to obtain copies of your work. In short, all submitted work must be your own. Cases of academic dishonesty will be pursued to the fullest extent possible as stipulated by the Office of Student Conduct.

It is very important for you to be aware of the consequences of cheating, fabrication, facilitation, and plagiarism. For more information on the Code of Academic Integrity or the Student Honor Council, please visit <http://www.shc.umd.edu>.

Academic accommodations for students who experience sexual misconduct

The University of Maryland is committed to providing support and resources, including academic accommodations, for students who experience sexual or relationship violence as defined by the University's Sexual Misconduct Policy. To report an incident and/or obtain an academic accommodation, contact the Office of Civil Rights and Sexual Misconduct at 301-405-1142. If you wish to speak confidentially, contact Campus Advocates Respond and Educate (CARE) to Stop Violence at 301-741-3555. As 'responsible university employees' faculty are required to report any disclosure of sexual misconduct, i.e., they may not hold such disclosures in confidence. For more information: <http://www.umd.edu/ocrsm/>

Diversity

The University of Maryland values the diversity of its student body. Along with the University, I am committed to providing a classroom atmosphere that encourages the equitable participation of all students regardless of age, disability, ethnicity, gender, national origin, race, religion, or sexual orientation. Potential devaluation of students in the classroom that can occur by reference to demeaning stereotypes of any group and/or overlooking the contributions of a particular group to the topic under discussion is inappropriate.
